

CITIZENS OF BRITTON, TEXAS

By

JUANITA MC VEAN

AUGUST, 2000

These are families who populated the small town of Britton, Texas in Ellis County during the last 40, 50, 60, or more years. The most of them have already gone on to their reward. Some of the members of the families may have been omitted, because I have forgotten some of them. One will just have to overlook any errors as there was no one to ask about anything.

those whose names have a * by their names are still living as well as I know. All of the others are already dead.
