

PHILIP THOMPSON SOCCER COMPLEX

1701 NORTH HOLLAND ROAD

These soccer fields were constructed in 1989 as a joint venture between the Mansfield Parks Department and the Mansfield Soccer Association (MSA).

The park is named after a former resident and soccer coach who died of cancer. It was originally used as a game facility by MSA until the Mansfield Sports Complex opened in 1996. Currently the eight acres of irrigated fields are used for practice by MSA soccer teams. In 2007, lights were added and two game fields were created.
